If the local school districts cancel classes or after school activities due to extreme weather, we will also cancel our classes. Parents will be notified via email, text and our Facebook page. A make-up date will be offered if a class is canceled twice in one session.

Make-up Classes: There are no refunds/reimbursements nor can missed classes be applied to subsequent months' tuition.

Shortly after we return from break, our dancers will begin working on taking the technique they have learned over the past months and incorporating it into our instructors fantastic choreography that will be performed at recital on June 3rd! We are working on the recital packet and will send it as soon as it is complete.

Studio 3?

We are still planning on creating a third studio. Due to unforeseen circumstances, the build is not happening as quickly as I wanted.
